

IN THE SOCIAL REALM

Salt Lake people and Utah people generally received with much interest the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Nellie T. Rasche and Mr. Matthew Cullen at Chicago on November 16. Mr. Cullen and Mrs. Rasche are among the very best known and highly respected people, not only of this state, but of the west generally. Mr. Cullen is a very wealthy man. He was one of the discoverers and one of the original owners of the great Horn Silver mine and also has other extensive and lucrative mining interests in Utah, Nevada, Montana and other states. He has large general business interests in Salt Lake and is an extensive property owner in this city, Minneapolis, Chicago and elsewhere. He has played an important part in the development of the west. Of a modest and retiring disposition he has never appeared much in the public eye, but has many warm and appreciative friends. His bride Mrs. Rasche, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thompson of Beaver county. She is the sister of Mr. Cullen's first wife, who died many years ago, and is a most estimable, refined and cultured lady. Mr. and Mrs. Cullen have the hearty good wishes of all who know them.

Miss Edna Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. W. Duncan, formerly of Salt Lake, but now of Kansas City, is in Salt Lake, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cooper. Miss Duncan is a talented singer and has made an enviable reputation in Kansas City and Chicago. During her stay here she will be quite an acquisition to the local musical world.

It has been decided that Colonel Joseph E. Caine will lead the cotillon at the University club on Thanksgiving eve.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cain have returned from Illinois.

Mrs. B. F. Bauer left Monday evening for California.

Mrs. E. I. Thorn has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Newhouse, of St. Louis.

Miss Ethel Olson entertained Tuesday afternoon at a Kensington tea to meet Mrs. Culbert L. Olson. The house was bright with red and white chrysanthemums and ferns and Miss Olson was assisted by her sister, Mrs. George M. Hansen of Ogden. The guests were Mrs. Job White, Mrs. M. B. White, Mrs. Julius Pratt, Mrs. W. H. Taylor, Mrs. George E. Walker, Mrs. Charles Cain Crismon, Mrs. Isaac Shuck, Mrs. Frederick Sinclair, Mrs. O. T. Brooks, Mrs. Carl Hardy, Miss Grace McGonigle, Miss Retta Pyper, Miss Hattie Whitney, Miss Gertrude Moyle, Miss Neva Pratt, Miss Fannie Bird, Miss Margaret Ryan, Miss Ethel Rogers, Miss Lena Moore, Miss Katherine Moffatt, Miss Mamie Hard, Mrs. Jack Browning, Mrs. George McGonigle, Miss Virginia Houtz, Miss Veda Eccles and Miss Nell Henderson.

Dr. Griswold has gone to the coast for a brief stay.

Mrs. Allen M. Smith of Fort Douglas entertained at bridge Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Samuel Newhouse entertained a number of the younger girls at a tea Tuesday afternoon to meet her niece, Miss Mary Moore.

Mrs. John E. Woodward entertained at a bridge tea Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dern and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood sailed Wednesday on the Majestic for Liverpool.

Mrs. L. Seton Lindsay entertained at a tea Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Murdock arrived Tuesday from California and are at home for the present at 885 First street.

Mrs. Louis S. Cates is the guest of her mother, Mrs. James K. Gillespie.

Mrs. Charles L. Hoag entertained the members of the Baker's Dozen at her home Tuesday afternoon.

The music section of the Ladies' Literary club met Thursday morning at the club house. Mrs. James Hogle and Mrs. I. C. Glosz read papers and music was furnished by Mrs. Walter G. Tuttle, Miss Ethel Williamson, Mrs. Harry B. Windsor, Mrs. Oscar L. Cox and Miss Edna Dwyer.

Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux entertained Wednesday at an informal luncheon, covers being laid for six.

The Ladies' Unitarian society, at their regular meeting Tuesday, were entertained by Mrs. Frank F. Eddy with an exhibition of water-color sketches done by Miss Amelia Watson of New York. Tea was served and a social hour passed.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer B. Jones have gone east for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Culbert L. Olson will be at home after November 25 at 10 South Seventh West street.

The N. G. U. ball given Wednesday evening at the armory was in every way a successful social event. The hall was decorated with flags and bunting, the latter being draped between the windows. Many potted palms hid the stage, where the enlarged orchestra of the guard was stationed. The grand march was led at 9 o'clock by Colonel Benjamin Lockwood and Mrs. Cutler. The guests were received by Governor and Mrs. Cutler, Adjutant General and Mrs. Joseph Geoghegan, Mrs. Crismon, Miss Bessie Crismon. The officers of the post were the guests of honor, a number of them being present. Among those noticed on the floor during the evening were Attorney General and Mrs. M. A. Breeden, Major and Mrs. J. J. Daynes, Mr. and Mrs. Lund, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke, Mrs. Kate B. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smeltzer, Mr. and Mrs. Eldredge, Dr. Blick, Dr. Baldwin, Mme. Cameron, Mrs. J. H. Barnes, Misses Ethel Partridge, Banks, Mary Young, Jessie Martin, Saunders, Philip, Ruth and Effie Wilson, Eva Richardson, Bessie Crismon, Butler, Marcroft, Flygare, Minnie Burmester, Daisy Raybould, Bernhart, Lillian James, Gibson, Woodbury, Edna Wiscomb, Kane, Hattie Whitney, Lieutenant Raydon Beebe, Lieutenant Gruber, Lieutenant Grypurger of Fort Riley; Wallace Bredemeyer, Roscoe Breeden, Julian and Harold Siegel, Mathis, Bull, Richardson, Bowine, Irml, Needham, Barnes, Pembroke, Williams, Bassett, Nuttall, Joe Jeremy, Carl Lollin, Skidmore, Foster, Charles Thomas, Lieutenant Rhibenurg, Burdette, Lawrence, Hamel, Burton, Maple, Lieutenant Parker, Lieutenant Smart, Lieutenant Easton, Engler, Captain Bryant Wells, Major Allen Smith, Captain George Jemerson, Captain Knease, N. G. U., of Ogden; Lieutenant Adams, Captain Pack, N. G. U.

The marriage of Miss Opal Hicks and Harry Anderson occurred Wednesday at the home of the groom's parents, Dean James B. Eddie officiating. Only the relatives were present, a large reception following from 8 until 11 o'clock. The bride wore a handsome gown of white crepe de chene over taffeta. Red and white were the colors used throughout the rooms. Assisting during the evening were Mrs. W. C. Evans, Mrs. F. A. Lange, Mrs. Frank Roe, Mrs. Wheeland, Mrs. Jas. Johnston and the Misses Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left for Los Angeles, where they will spend a couple of weeks. After January 1 they will be at home at 137 North Main street.

General and Mrs. J. W. Thompson gave a dinner Thursday evening at the Alta club.

Mrs. R. F. Hayward was the hostess of a tea Wednesday afternoon to say "good-bye" to her many friends in the city. Assisting during the afternoon were Mrs. George Y. Wallace, Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay, Mrs. S. Sturgis, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. Mrs. Frances Bascom, Mrs. L. Seton Lindsay, Miss Hanauer. About forty guests called.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Charles Miller have issued cards for a musicale to be given at the First Congregational church on Friday evening, December 1.

Mrs. Thomas Weir entertained at a tea Thursday afternoon.

Roscoe Breeden entertained Wednesday at luncheon at the Commercial club in honor of Mrs. John T. Hurst of Ogden. Covers were laid for six.

Mrs. John E. Woodward entertained at a bridge tea Thursday afternoon.

Miss Carol Wilcox of Spokane is the guest of Miss Myra Sowles.

The Unitarian society will give a

ON TIME

We maintain a promptness of delivery and a uniform grade of work, that appeals to all who get that

Perfect Work

TROY LAUNDRY

"The Laundry of Quality"

Both Phones 192

166 Main St.

Warm Dressing

The proper requisite underwear in both Wool and Cotton fabrics for your comfort; all sizes and qualities. We sell HATS produced by famous Hatters. Agents for DUNLAP HATS.

Sole Agt's Dr. Deibel Linen Mesh Underwear

Sole Agt's Dr. Jaeger Sanitary Wool Underwear

SHIRTS TO ORDER

BROWN, TERRY & WOODRUFF CO.

Telephone 193

166 Main St.